

14/1/22

Class V English I

PAGE NO. :

DATE : / /

Chapter : 15 The Choice is Yours

Word meanings

great day - an important day

grand - nice

showroom - the place where new vehicles or items are shown.

swooned - felt very excited

delight - happiness

swanky - grand

paper work - document completion

guide - a person who advises or show the way

yelled - shout loudly

attention - listen carefully

instruction booklet - a small book given along a vehicle or device to tell how to use it coasted - moved

admiring - praising

poor - (here) fool

driven - handled

spiritual masters - those who give religious or moral education.

neither - also not

religion - related to soul and God

14/1/22

God-given instruments - (here) body and mind end-up - spend leading - living
 miserable - full of troubles

Activity - I

A Choose the correct alternative.

1. Mr. Roshanlal was a/an.....

- (a) funny person (b) intelligent person
 (c) kind person (d) impatient person

Ans. [d]

2. God-given instruments are.....

- (a) cars (b) booklets
 (c) body and mind (d) cycle

Ans. [c]

B. Write 'T' for true statements and 'F' for false ones.

1. Roshanlal was fond of cars. [T]

2. He listened to the guide patiently. [F]

3. People thought him to be a fool or a funny man. [T]

4. Books on religion and culture are like

14/1/22

PAGE NO. :

DATE : / /

instruction booklets for us to lead good life.

[T]

5. Sprititual masters guide us to lead miserable, boring and wasteful life. [F]

C. Answer the following questions in one or two lines :

Q. 1 Why did Roshantal buy a new car?

Ans. Roshantal loved cars and therefore he bought a new car.

Q 2 Why did he not pay attention to the guide?

Ans. Mr. Roshantal was very impatient to drive the car himself. So he did not pay attention to the guide.

Q. 3. "Poor Mr. Roshantal!" How is Mr. Roshantal poor?

Ans. Mr. Roshantal is poor because he has forgotten to drive the new car at a high speed.

Q. 4. What happens when we ignore sprititual masters?

Ans. When we ignore sprititual masters, we end up leading miserable, boring or wasterful lives.

14/1/22

PAGE NO. :

DATE : / /

Q.5 Do you read your religious books? Which ones? What do you like in it?

Ans. Of course, I read my religious books like the Geeta, the Ramayan etc. The thing I like is that these books help me make full use of my mind and body in a positive way.

Activity – II

A. Fill in the blanks choosing appropriate words from the box.

grand      new      old      great

1. Roshanlal used an ..... old ..... car.
2. He dressed carefully for the moment and reached the ..... grand ..... showroom.
3. He thought that they were admiring his ..... new ..... car.
4. At long last the ..... great ..... day arrived!

B. Look at the following words carefully.

totally	total + ly
nearly	near + ly
carefully	careful + ly

Now make new words by adding '-ly' to the words given below.

bad

..... badly .....

beautiful

..... beautifully .....

hard

..... hardly .....

easy

..... easily .....

love

..... lovely .....

slow

..... slowly .....

Activity – V

Which is your favourite vehicle? Write a few sentences on it.
You may begin like this.

I have seen a bicycle.

It is red in colour.

It runs very smooth.

I like riding on it very much.

I have seen a motorcycle.

It is black in colour.

It runs very fast.

It is manufactured by an Indian company.

It looks very beautiful.