

A Complete these sentences with suitable adjectives from the box.

her tiny grey sleepy bright their square pretty

1. There is a tiny ant crawling up your arm.
2. It is going to rain. There are grey clouds in the sky.
3. There are two square windows in the dining room.
4. Don't pluck those flowers. They look so pretty on the plant.
5. The little girl is looking everywhere for her mother.
6. The lion is sleepy after its big meal.
7. The weather is sunny and bright. It is perfect for a picnic.
8. Have they moved into their new flat?

B | Choose the correct word to complete these sentences.

1. Take the other road. It is shorter than this.
a. short b. shorter than c. shortest
2. Those yellow sheets are the cleanest of all.
 a. the cleanest b. clean c. cleaner than
3. Jatin is a big hitter who scores well in all the matches.
a. bigger b. a big c. biggest
4. The price of computers is lower than before.
a. the lowest b. low than c. lower than
5. The tiger lily is a lovely flower.
a. loveliest b. a lovely c. lovelier than

A Replace the words in colour in these sentences with the correct words from the box.

took care of come true call on put (something) away a long time ago

1. Don't be sad. I am sure your dreams will turn real one day.
come true
2. Many years ago, there lived a great king and warrior called Samudragupta.
A long time ago
3. If you don't keep the cricket bat somewhere else, someone may trip on it and fall.
put
4. We can certainly visit them, but first let's make sure they are home.
call on
5. Who looked after your pet when all of you were away?
took care of

>>> antonyms

B Complete these sentences with the opposites of the words in colour.

1. The younger children were quite noisy. But the older ones were very quiet.
2. Earlier the room smelled very unpleasant because I had sprayed insect repellent. But now, it smells fresh and pleasant because of the flowers in the vase.
3. How could you forget to bring my book? I thought you would remember.
4. A paper boat will float on water. But, if you throw a pebble in water, it will sink.
5. You fell down and hurt yourself because you were very careless. Next time, you have to be carefully.
6. He was an unknown cricket player before this IPL series. But after scoring 100 in the last match, he has become known.
7. Mother was able to call you on your mobile phone. But, she was unable to get in touch with Aunt Rashida.
8. Plastic bags are useless. Use jute bags as they are very useful.

Listening

>>> while listening task—poem

Complete this poem as you listen. You can listen to the poem again and check your answers.

Sometimes things in ¹ the world
 Look like artwork to my eyes.
 Could it be a painter
 Has been painting ² butterflies?
 Their patterns are so lovely,
 Painted so ³ beautifully
 Each wing is like the other,
 Matching perfectly.
 They hover through ⁴ the garden,
 Dazzling my eyes.
 I run right home ⁵ to paint my own
⁶ pretty little butterflies.

Writing

>>> descriptive paragraph

Complete this paragraph about how Benjamin drew his first picture, in your own words. Look at the words in brackets for help.

One day, Benjamin's mother went to their neighbour's house. His baby sister was sleeping. Benjamin's mother asked ¹ Benjamin to stay in the house and look after his baby sister (Benjamin – stay in the house – look after baby sister). For some time, Benjamin stayed quiet. Then, he felt lonely. So, ² he thought of drawing a picture of his sleeping sister (draw – sister). He found a piece of cardboard and some charcoal. He drew her ³ round head covered with curls, her small mouth head and ears (head – curls – mouth – eyes – ears – hands). His mother came back soon, but he ⁴ did not know that she was back (not know). Benjamin's mother saw the picture he drew ⁵ and was surprised to see how well (surprise). But then she became worried and thought ⁶ if it was the correct thing for Benjamin to do (correct thing).

