

29/1/22

English I

class IV

Page No. :

Date :

--	--	--

Poem: Great, Wide, Beautiful, Wonderful World

New-words

Whirls - move or cause to move rapidly round and round, rotate

mills - factory, plant

cliffs - areas of a rock or mountain with very steep sides

isles - islands

miles - a very long way or a very great amount.

insignificant - too small or unimportant to be worth consideration.

A. Answer these questions.

Q. 1. What is the World wearing?

Ans. The world has the wonderful water curled around her and the wonderful grass upon her. It seems to be dressed in that water and that grass.

Q. 2. How can we tell that the wind walks over the water?

Ans. When the wind walks over the water, waves and ripples are formed.

--	--	--

Q 3. According to the speaker, what are the things we find on Earth?

Ans. We find cities, gardens, mills, hills, cliffs, islands, wheat, fields, rivers and people on Earth.

Q 4. Why is the Earth 'friendly'?

Ans. The Earth is 'friendly' because it has water and air which allow so many plants to grow and help different creature live.

13. Think and answer these questions.

1. I tremble to think of you, world, at all. Why does the speaker tremble to think of the Earth?

Ans. The Earth is great and vast when compared to the speaker. So, the speaker trembles to think of the Earth.

2. Do the speaker's thoughts change by the end of the poem? Why does this happen?

Ans. The speaker realise that though the Earth is vast and beautiful, it still cannot feel or experience emotions the way the speaker can. So, the speaker's thoughts change by the end of the poem.

--	--	--

Tick (✓) the correct answers.

1. The Sahara desert is a vast / mighty desert.
2. The wrestler is very strong and grand / mighty.
3. Ritu caught a gigantic / grand fish from the lake.
4. The school's annual function was a grand / vast success.

The rhyming words that are spelled differently are -

world - curled

breast - dressed

me - tree

go - flow

isles - miles